THE

NUMB. 46.

South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, DECEMBER 7, to Saturday, DECEMBER 14. 1734.

LONDON, Sept. 21.

THere is a Talk of raiſing eight new Regiments in this Kingdom, to be ſent to Ireland, to ſupply the Place of the like Number of Regiments brought over from thence laſt Spring to England and Scotland, and which are now put on the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment: And that ſeveral Lords of the Admiralty, who are now in the Country, are coming up to Town, to ſign ſome Orders relating to the Fleet, which, People ſtill believe, will ſoon ſail for Port-Mahon.

Thurſday an extraordinary Courier arriv'd from Naples, at his Excellency the Count de Montijo's, with Account, that the new Viceroy of Sicily had already ſubdued all the Fortreſſes in that Kingdom to his Neapolitan Majeſty's Obedience, excepting the Citadel of Meſſina which could not hold out any conſiderable Time; and his Excellency caus'd the Te Deum to be ſung at his Houſe, on that Occaſion.

They write from Paris, that poor Punchinello in the Puppet-Shew at St. Laurence's Fair had been ſeized and committed, for unadviſedly Speaking of the Battle of Parma, in a Manner that might be taken for a Critique upon the Marſhal de Coigny. The Paſſage was comical enough. Punch appeared upon the Stage in a very great Heat, with a Lantern in his Hand, to examine whether had gained the Victory in a great Battle he had fought; after having looked all over the Field of Battle, he ſent for his Secretary to write to Court. The Spectators obſerved the Raillery, and laughed at the Expence of the General concerning whom they are ſo full of Doubt, as to ſay, Never General made ſo little Uſe of ſo fair an Opportunity.

By our Advices from Paris of the 17th, N.S. we learn, That there is handed about there the following Project of Accommodation, grounded upon Conjectures of what will be the Reſult of the Congreſs, which 'tis ſtill pretented is to aſſemble this Winter, either at the Hague or at Bruſſels, viz.

I. 'That the Elector of Saxony ſhall be King of Poland, 'and the Crown be made hereditary in his Family.

II. 'That Lorrain ſhall be eſtabliſhed into a Kingdom, 'under the Title of that of Thuringia, and be given to King 'Staniſlaus, revertible to the Crown of France.

III. 'That the Duke of Lorrain ſhall marry the Arch-'dutcheſs, eldeſt Daughter of the Emperor, and be elected 'King of the Romans.

IV. 'That Don Carlos ſhall marry the Second Arch-'dutcheſs, and the Emperor to give him up all the Claims 'he has in Italy.

V. 'That the Milaneſe ſhall be given to the King of 'Sardinia, except ſome Places which ſhall be joined to the 'Dutchies of Parma, Placentia, and Tuſcany, which ſhall 'be given to the Infante Don Philip.

VI. 'That the Dutchy of Mantua ſhall be given to the 'Duke of Lorrain's Brother.

VII. 'That the Kingdom of Bohemia, with the Title 'of King, ſhall be given to the Elector of Bavaria, and be 'made Hereditary in his Family.

VIII. 'That Luxemburg ſhall be diſmantled, and given up 'to France.

IX. 'That the Czarina ſhall ſend an Ambaſſador to the 'King, to acknowledge him Emperor of the French, and 'give him the Precedency; and he ſhall acknowledge her 'Majeſty the Empreſs of the Two Ruſſia's.'

'Tis added from Paris, That 'tis believed that the Regiments of Cavalry of Orleans, Briſac, and Vogue, will begin their March the 1ſt of October, in order to return to France from Italy; and that the King's Regiment will take the ſame Rout this Winter: for that 'tis not doubted but the Spaniards by that Time will have finiſhed all their Projects, and be able to ſend a large Reinforcement to the Army of the Allies in Lombardy, more than ſufficient to ſupply the place of theſe Regiments.

By a Letter from Naples of the 30th ult. we are told, That the Spaniſh Army, lately embarked for Sicily, landed ſafely at Solents, in that Iſland, the Day before.

On Thurſday there was a General Council at Kenſington.

PHILADELPHIA, Octob. 24.

Saturday laſt, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer held here, came on the Tryal of a Man and his Wife, who were indicted for the Murder of a Daughter which he had by a former Wife, (a Girl of about 14 Years of Age) by turning her out of Doors, and thereby expoſing her to ſuch Hardſhips, as afterwards produced grievous Sickneſs and Lameneſs; during which, inſtead of ſupplying her with

Neceſ-

Neceſſaries and due Attendance, they treated her with the utmoſt Cruelty and Barbarity, ſuffering her to lie and rot in her Naſtineſs, and when ſhe cried for Bread giving her into her Mouth with an Iron Ladle, her own Excrements to eat, with a great Number of other Circumſtances of the like Nature, ſo that ſhe languiſhed and at length died. The Evidence againſt them was numerous, and in many Particulars poſitive; but the Opinion of the Phyſician who had viſited the Child, that whatever Uſage might be given her, the Diſtemper ſhe laboured under was ſuch, as would of itſelf in all Probability have ended her Life about the Time ſhe died, it is thought weighed ſo much with the Jury, that they brought in their Verdict only Man-ſlaughter. A Verdict which the Judge, (in a ſhort but pathetic Speech to the Priſoners before the Sentence) told them was extreamly favourable; and that, as the Relation of their hitherto unheard-of Barbarity had in the higheſt Manner ſhocked all that were preſent; ſo, if they were not perfectly ſtupified, the inward Reflection upon their own enormous Crimes, muſt be more terrible and ſhocking to them, than the Puniſhment they were to undergo: For that they had not only acted contrary to the particular Laws of all Nations, but had even broken the Univerſal Law of Nature; ſince there are no Creatures known, how ſavage, wild, and fierce ſoever, that have not implanted in them a natural Love and Care of their tender Offspring, and that will not even hazard Life in its Protection and Defence. ------- But this is not the only Inſtance the preſent Age has afforded, of the incomprehenſible Inſenſibility Dram drinking is capable of producing ------ They were ſentenced to be burnt in the Hand, which was accordingly executed in Court, upon them both, but firſt upon the Man, who offer'd to receive another Burning if ſo be his Wife might be excuſed; but was told the Law would not allow it

New York, Nov. 4. On the 15th paſt in Aſſembly, it was Reſolved, that a Duty of One Shilling per Pound be laid upon all Tea imported into this Province, towards erecting Fortifications. And the 23d day the Houſe Reſolved that 12 d. per Barrel be laid upon all Syder imported, and 3 s per Barrel upon Pork, and 2 s. per Bar. upon Beef imported from all Places except New-Jerſey. And that a Tax of 12 d. be paid for every Negroe Slave from 14 to 50 Years of Age, within this Province. Theſe Taxes to continue for ten Years. Upon the Credit of which Fonds, and the Tonnage of Veſſels, Bills of Credit to the Value of Twelve Thouſand Pounds are to be ſtruck and iſſued for the erecting Fortifications within this Colony.

On Wedneſday laſt Capt. Bryant in the Ship Albany, arrived here in about 8 Weeks from London, by whom we hear that His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confirm the honourable James De Lancey, Eſq; in his Poſt of Chief Juſtice of this Province.

We find by the London Prints, Aug. 31. that King Staniſlaus was gone with Major General Stempfligt, to the Army under the Count de Tarlo, who is about 30,000 ſtrong, in order to make head, and undertake ſome great Enterprize about Cracow; and that at Lemberg a great Number of Coſſacks were to Aſſemble near Caminiack to ſecond that Deſign.

CHARLESTOWN, Dec. 18.

The Account we had from England by an Expreſs arrived there from France, of the Battle in Italy between the Imperialiſts and the Allies, (in Gazette Numb. 44.) ſeems to have been ſent over with too great Precipitation and before Bellona had finally decided on which ſide ſhould be the Victory. This will appear to my Readers in comparing the following Extract of a Letter to a Gentleman in this Town (who favour'd me with a Copy of it) from his Correſpondent in Lizbon: The Letter is dated Lisbon, October 20. 1734.

The French have not made that Progreſs on the Rhine that could be expected from ſo large an Army, and both are already going into Winter-Quarters. without coming to any conſiderable action: Not ſo in Italy, where they have beat one another very heartily, and tho' the French and Allies pretended to the the Advantage of Battle fought laſt June near Parma, yet they can't tell how, for the Imperialiſts never ſince ſhunn'd them, but bravely attck'd their Lines the 15th or 16th ultimo, and took a great part of their baggage, many Priſoners &c. again the 19th took from them a neighbouring ſtrong Town and Garriſon, but were overpower'd by a much ſuperiour Detachment from the Allies Army, upon which the Germans (as 'tis ſaid) ſeemed to retreat precipitately and by that means gave the French room to expect a great Victory, who accordingly diſpatch'd Expreſſes thereof thro' all Parts, but ſoon found their miſtake, their whole army meeting that of Count Konigſegg drawn up on a plain to receive them, and 'tis currently reported, he has made great havock amongſt them, & got a compleat victory whereof I doubt not having the Confirmation next poſt, mentioning to you the particulars as may be freſher than what you can well have from England: The Spaniards are in full poſſeſſion of Naples and Sicily, only the Citadel of Meſſina and another ſtrong Place holding out for the Emperor, but cannot long.

P. S. The defeat of the French in Italy is confirm'd by all hands, but they ſay is not near ſo great as the Germans make it.
